

Position Description of Cary Community Choir Music Director

Position Description:

The Music Director is a part-time, paid, one year position (with possible future successive terms) for the Cary Community Choir in Cary, North Carolina. The Director is responsible for directing a 100+ volunteer mixed chorus, instrumentalists and soloists at three rehearsals and one annual performance of portions of Handel's Messiah in early December, 2019. The rehearsals and performance will take place at a local Cary church. The Director will be an ex officio member of the Cary Community Choir Board of Directors and will liaise and collaborate with the Board in the selection of instrumentalists and soloists. Tentative hiring date is May 2019 with applications accepted beginning February 15.

Position Qualifications:

The Director must have choral and orchestral conducting experience, preferably conducting Handel's Messiah. The Director must have effective rehearsal techniques for a volunteer choir, and be adept at selecting and hiring Messiah soloists. The Director must be available to liaise with the Board of Directors throughout the year and attend selected board meetings, as requested.

Application Instructions:
